

Acceptable Use Policy NBN and Voice

About this Acceptable Use Policy for nbn™ and VoIP plans

- a. This Acceptable Use Policy applies to all our nbn™ and VoIP Plans for nbn™ and VoIP services.
- b. Your use of a Service is subject to the following rules and guidelines contained in this policy.
- c. The meaning of the capitalised terms are;
 - i. set out at the end of this policy,
 - ii. in the Service Description for the relevant Service; or
 - iii. in our Telecommunications Consumer Terms (as applicable to you).

If a definition in this policy is inconsistent with a definition in the Service Description or in our Telecommunications Consumer Terms (as applicable to you), the definition in this policy applies.

General

- a. This policy is designed to ensure that your use of the Service does not break any laws, hinder the efficient operation of our Supplier's Network, interfere with the rights of our other customers, or interfere more generally with the rights of Internet users.
- b. You are responsible for ensuring that use of the Service and your Account (if any) complies with this policy. You are also responsible for any use of the Service even if, for example, it was used, with or without your consent, by a friend, family member, guest or employee who gains access to the Service or your Account (if any).
- c. We may amend this policy at any time. The latest version of this policy will always be available on our website <https://Comm.tel.com.au/>
- d. You should consult this policy regularly to ensure that your activities conform to the most recent version.
- e. If there is an inconsistency between any other part of our Agreement and this policy, this policy will apply.

- f. If you become aware of any violations of this policy by other users you should contact us on 1300 046 888 (Monday to Friday, 8am–8pm AEST).

Illegal activity

You must not use the Service for any activity that breaches any law or violates any local, state, Commonwealth or international law, order or regulation.

Prohibited activities include (but are not limited to):

- a. posting, disseminating, or in some cases accessing, content which is unlawful, including:
 - i. content that is or would be classified by the Classification Board as RC rated or X rated or content that is or would be classified by the Classification Board as R rated where a Restricted Access System is not in place;
 - ii. content which violates the copyright or other Intellectual Property Rights of others. You assume all risks regarding the determination of whether material is in the public domain; or
 - iii. content that defames, harasses or abuses anyone or violates their privacy,
- b. pyramid or other illegal soliciting schemes; or
- c. any fraudulent activities, including impersonating any person or entity or forging anyone else's digital or manual signature.

Security

- a. You are responsible for any misuse of the Service, as set out in clause 2(b) above. You must take reasonable steps to ensure that others do not gain unauthorised access to the Service and your Account.
- b. The Service must not be used to obtain or attempt to obtain unauthorised access to any computer, system or Network. If you do not have authorisation, prohibited activities include (but are not limited to):
 - i. accessing, monitoring or using any data, systems or networks;
 - ii. probing, scanning or testing the vulnerability of a system or network;
 - iii. breaching any security or authentication measures for a system

Acceptable Use Policy NBN and Voice

- c. or network; iv. accessing the account or private information of any other person or entity; and
 - v. accessing any server in violation of any acceptable use policy of that server, including any attempt to o any of the things mentioned in paragraphs (i) to (iv) above. c. You must not:
 - i. use (or attempt to use) or distribute tools designed for compromising security including, but not limited to, password guessing programs, cracking tools, packet sniffers or network probing tools;
 - ii. knowingly transmit or disseminate any information or software, which contains a virus or other harmful feature;
 - iii. use (or attempt to use) the Service in a manner that may interfere with the technical operation of the Service or any other computer, system, network or telecommunications services, including (but not limited to) denial of service attacks, flooding of a network, overloading a service, improper seizing and abuse of operator privileges and attempts to 'crash' a host; or
 - iv. interfere (or attempt to interfere) with the regular workings of our systems or network connections.
- d. You are solely responsible for the security of any device you choose to connect to the Service, including any data stored on that device.
- e. We recommend against enabling file or printer sharing of any sort. We recommend that any files or services you do choose to make available for remote access be protected with a password or other appropriate measures to prevent unauthorised access.
- f. You must notify us immediately of any unauthorised or attempted unauthorised use of your Service and any other breach or attempted breach of security.

Risks of the internet

- a. Some activities that you can perform when accessing the Internet may be harmful or cause loss to you, other people that may access your Service, or your equipment. Typical activities include (but are not limited to):
 - i. downloading content (including receiving emails) from the Internet which may introduce

- ii. viruses or other harmful features to your computer;
 - iii. purchasing goods or services using the Internet;
 - iv. transmitting confidential information over the Internet (such as your credit card number or other personal information); or
 - v. accessing and viewing content on the Internet or otherwise available through the Service that may be offensive to some individuals, or inappropriate for children (for example, it is possible to obtain access to content that is pornographic, offensive and/or unsuitable for children).
- b. You bear all risks associated with the activities referred to in paragraph (a) above, and we do not have any liability for any claims, losses, actions, damages, suits or proceedings arising out of or otherwise relating to such activities.
 - c. You may minimise the risk of accessing illegal or offensive content as well as managing use of the Internet by using a Filtering Solution.
 - d. You have the right to make complaints to the Australian Communications and Media Authority about Internet content which is or would be classified by the Classification Board as X rated or RC rated, or which is or would be R rated and does not have a Restricted Access System in place.

Content publishing

- a. You are solely responsible for any content that you publish via websites, email, newsgroups, Online Forums or other publishing mediums accessed via the Service.
- b. You must not publish material that is or would be classified by the Classification Board as RC rated or X rated via websites, email, newsgroups or other publishing mediums accessible via the Service.
- c. You must take appropriate precautions to prevent minors from accessing or receiving any content you have published that may be inappropriate for them. This includes implementing a Restricted Access System on content that is or would be classified by the Classification Board as R rated. We also encourage you to use appropriate warnings and / or labelling systems in respect of content which is likely to be considered unsuitable for children.

Acceptable Use Policy NBN and Voice

- d. We reserve the right to block access to, to remove, or to refuse to post any content, in whole or in part, that we, in our sole discretion, deem to be offensive, indecent, or otherwise inappropriate regardless of whether such content or its dissemination is unlawful. This includes (but is not limited to) obscene material, fraudulent or deceptive statements, threatening, intimidating or harassing statements, or material which violates the privacy rights or Intellectual Property Rights of others, or is likely to be defamatory of another person.
- e. Commonwealth legislation allows the Australian Communications and Media Authority to direct us to remove certain prohibited or potentially prohibited content from our servers (or those of our service providers) or to prevent users from accessing certain Internet content. We may take any steps necessary in order to ensure compliance with any relevant industry code of practice, or notification or direction from the Australian Communications and Media Authority, including removing any content (including part or all of a website) from our servers, blocking access to newsgroups, closing or suspending your Account, filtering the Internet content made available to you or restricting access to a particular website. We may take these steps at any time and without notice to you.
- f. Commonwealth legislation allows copyright owners or their agents to direct us to remove copyright materials from our servers or to prevent users from accessing copyright materials. We may take any steps necessary in order to ensure compliance with a notification from a copyright owner or their agent, including removing any content (including part or all of a website) from our servers, closing or suspending your Account, filtering the Internet content made available to you or restricting access to a particular website. We may take these steps at any time and without notice to you.
- g. We are under no obligation to monitor transmissions or published content on the Service. However, we (or our agents) have the right to monitor such transmissions or published content from time to time and to disclose that content.
- h. By using the Service to reproduce, publish, display, transmit or distribute content, you warrant that the content complies with this policy and authorises us (or our agents) to reproduce, publish, display,

- i. transmit and distribute such content as necessary for us to deliver the content in a timely manner.

Electronic messaging

- a. You must not use the Service to send bulk and/or unsolicited messages. This includes, but is not limited to commercial advertising, informational announcements, charity requests, petitions for signatures, chain letters and political or religious messages. You must only send such a message to those individuals who have explicitly requested it.
- b. The Service must not be used to:
 - i. send messages to any individual or entity who has indicated that he/she/it does not wish to receive messages from you; or
 - ii. collect or redirect responses from unsolicited messages sent from accounts on other Internet hosts or messaging services which violates this policy, or the equivalent policy or any other policy of any other Internet service provider or website. Moreover, unsolicited messages sent from accounts on other Internet hosts or messaging services may not direct the recipient to any website or other resource that uses our Supplier's Network.
- c. You must not:
 - i. obscure, alter or delete the source of messages that you send or forge message headers;
 - ii. send numerous copies of the same or substantially similar messages, or send very large messages or files, to a recipient with the intent to disrupt a server or account (for example, 'mail bombing'); or
 - iii. send chain letters, whether or not the recipient wishes to receive such mailings.
- d. We are not responsible for forwarding or storing messages sent to any Accounts that have been suspended or cancelled. Such messages may be returned to sender, ignored, deleted, or stored temporarily at our sole discretion.

Online forums

- a. This clause applies to Online Forums, in addition to clause 6.
- b. Messages posted to an Online Forum must comply with the written charters for that forum. You are responsible for determining the policies of a given forum before posting a message to it. Data files may only be posted to Online Forums that specifically permit this.

- c. Posting or cross-posting the same or substantially similar messages to more than eight Online Forums is prohibited.
- d. You must not disrupt or attempt to disrupt Online Forums by posting a large number of messages that contain no substantive content. Disruption occurs when normal discussion in the group is significantly hindered.
- e. You must not use the Service to connect to an online forum from which you have been previously banned.

Automated applications

The Service is provided for interactive use. However, if automated programs or programs that maintain a persistent connection to a remote service are used, they must only be used when you are physically present at the computer. These activities include (but are not limited to) automated file downloading, IRC 'bots', continuous streaming media and peer-to-peer file sharing applications.

Violation of Acceptable Use Policy

- a. If you, or someone with access to the Service, use the Service in a way that we, in our sole discretion, believe violates this policy or any other term of your agreement, we may take any responsive action we deem appropriate.
- b. Such actions may include (but are not limited to) temporary or permanent removal of content and content publishing capabilities, filtering of Internet transmissions and the immediate suspension or cancellation of all or any portion of the Service.
- c. We have no liability for any such responsive actions and may take any other legal or technical action we deem appropriate, including taking action against offenders to recover the costs and expenses of identifying them. If your use of the Service causes a loss to third parties and we are required to pay compensation, you must indemnify and reimburse us.
- d. We are not obligated to regularly monitor your usage of the Service (including any content posted, disseminated or accessed by you), however we reserve the right to monitor your use of the Service
- e. to identify violations of this policy, and to protect our Network, the other users of this Service, and other Internet users.
- f. We reserve the right to investigate suspected violations of this policy, including the gathering of information from the user(s) involved and the complaining party, if any, and examination of transmissions and material on our servers and Network. During an investigation, we may suspend the Account(s) involved, interrupt transmissions and/or remove material that potentially violates this policy.
- g. In order to enforce this policy, you authorise us (or our agents) to cooperate with:
 - i. law enforcement authorities in the investigation of suspected criminal violations, and
 - ii. system administrators at other Internet service providers or other network or computing facilities. Such cooperation may include us providing, for example, the username, IP address or other identifying information about a user.
- h. Upon cancellation of an Account, we are authorised to delete any files, programs, data and email messages associated with that Account.
- i. Any failure by us to enforce this policy, for whatever reason, shall not be construed as a waiver of any right to do so at any time.
- j. You agree that, if any portion of this policy is held invalid or unenforceable, that portion will be construed consistent with applicable law as nearly as possible, and the remaining portions will remain in full force and effect.

Unreasonable voice usage

COMMTEL considers Customer use of a Service, plan inclusion, promotion and/or offer to be unreasonable if accessed or utilised for any non-ordinary purpose or, if the Plan is a residential plan for household or personal use only but is instead used for commercial or other atypical household or personal purposes. Non-ordinary purpose includes:

- a. use of a Service of more than 3000 minutes in each bill cycle
- b. running a telemarketing business or call centre;
- c. re-supplying or reselling the Service;

Acceptable Use Policy NBN and Voice

- d. wholesale of any Service (e.g. transit, refile or aggregate domestic or international traffic) on our network;
- e. abnormal or excessive use of back to base services;
- f. SIM boxing or using the Service (including any of our SIM card(s)) in connection with a device or method that switches, routes or re-routes traffic (e.g. calls, SMS, data, etc.) to or from our network or the network of any supplier;
- g. usage that affects other Customers' access to the network or enjoyment of the Services;
- h. setting up switch devices which overcome subscription and/or pricing charges, potentially limiting the ability for other Customers to access the Service; or
- i. any other activity which would not be reasonably regarded as typical or ordinary use.
